PUBLIC CIRCULAR

Invitation for suggestions on DESHBHAKTI Curriculum in Delhi Government

Schools

Delhi Government is in the process of developing DESHBHAKTI Curriculum. This curriculum will be introduced in the schools of Delhi Government for students of Nursery to Class 8th from academic year 2020-21. This curriculum shall be introduced alongside the Happiness Curriculum which is already running in the Delhi Government schools.

The proposed curriculum has the following three objectives:

1. Instil pride for our country among the students
2. Build awareness of responsibilities towards the country, and
3. Commitment to make sacrifice for the country

SCERT is working on developing the curriculum, wherein it also wishes to seek out opinions and suggestions from Parents, Teachers and People from education community, student and general public through a Google form.

In this regard, suggestion and feedback from different stakeholders are invited. Google form link is <https://urlzs.com/cE13U>

The input will be examined and selected entries will be invited to participate in the curriculum/resource material development and further effective implementation of the curriculum.
